

8th Grade Summer Assignment

Students can receive extra credit for working on ixl skills during the summer. Students can choose what skills to practice. They do not need to submit a screenshot to google classroom.

Codeworlds extra credit - ixl level J

Reach 80 on 3 ixl math skills	to earn a 100 on a homework assignment
Reach 80 on 9 skills	to earn a 100 on a homework and a formative assessment
Reach 80 on 27 skills	to earn a 100 on homework, formative, and summative assessment

Point of View extra credit - ixl level J

Reach 80 on 3 ixl ELA skills	to earn a 100 on a homework assignment
Reach 80 on 9 skills	to earn a 100 on a homework and a formative assessment
Reach 80 on 27 skills	to earn a 100 on homework, formative, and summative assessment

For further reading materials, students can visit:

Black Lives Matter Reading List from Brooklyn Library

Middle School Reading Guide from Lisa Egan

Sora - partnership between the DOE and OverDrive

Common Lit Reading Challenge

For further math practice, students can visit:

Scholastic Math Hunt

Math Playground

NCTM Illuminations

Math Question of the Day.

School Supply List

To help families plan for the year, we are keeping our school supply list consistent from 2019-2020.

The first day of school students should bring the following supplies:

- 6 folders
- A 5 subject notebook
- 2 marble composition notebooks
- Pencil case
- Blue/black pens
- Pencils
- Colored pencils, markers, crayons
- Handheld sharpener
- Highlighters
- Post its
- Index cards
- Scissors
- Glue sticks
- 1 USB flash drive (8 GB)

Additionally, at the start of a new school year, the 8th grade teachers would greatly appreciate donations for the class of the following items:

- Tissues & Paper towels
- Markers (Sharpies, Crayola, Dry Erase)
- Index Cards
- Post It notes
- Lysol Wipes
- Paper: Loose Leaf, Construction, & Graph.

Feel free to send your child in with any of these donation items on the first day of school, in a bag labeled: donations.